OUR GLASSES

Make You Young

Watch the next child, or young person, wearing a pair of glasses. Don't they make the child look old? That is the fault of the glasses. They have no more right to make a person look old than a hat or a suit of clothes. The right kind make you look younger—the kind we sell.

Our glasses not only enhance your appearance but they are the best that science has been able to produce for a condition like yours.

THE PUBLIC MEETING.

The annual meeting to discuss provisions questions was held in the Oddfellows' Hall last evening, and was well attended. Eloquent addresses were delivered by S. B. Hillcock, M.P.P. of North Calgary, and E. Michener, M.P.P. The chair was occupied by M. A. Munro, president of the Conservative Association. A full report of the addresses will appear next week.

RED DEER HORSES SUCCESSFUL AT THE EDMONTON SHOW.

Cecil Hewson, of Red Deer, won two first prizes at the Edmonton Horse Show last week. He got first with Tipston D. in the two-year old standard bred class, and first with Tilden Boy in the three-year old standard bred class.

LADIES' QUARTETTE AT BLACKFALDS.

The Toronto Ladies' Quartette will appear in Blackfalds public hall on Saturday night, April 18th, at 8.30 o'clock. This Company has three new members, and is said to be stronger than ever. Reserved seats for sale three days in advance at Chris. Sorenson's store. Phone or write. Early morning trains now stop at Blackfalds when flagged, so in future passengers can get on or off any regular passenger train.

BOARD OF TRADE SPECIAL MEETING.

The Board of Trade Council held a special meeting on Saturday to meet Mr. Mallet, who represented parties connected with the automobile building trade who were looking for a location in the west. After Mr. Mallet had stated his case, he was thanked for the interest he had shown in Red Deer and a committee of three, R. B. Welliver, Mayor Carscadden and A. Wylie, were instructed to enquire into the facts and report back to the Board.

BYRON'S TROUBADOURS.

This famous company of musicians will appear at the Empire Theatre, Tuesday evening next, April 21st. Each member in his own particular specialty has had the advantage of years of training with American and European masters.

Mr. A. A. Davis, Chicago, Ill.—Byron's Troubadours are the best attraction that has appeared here for some time. To select one feature stronger than the rest would require a professional critic, they were all excellent. Of course the Vespertine trio and karp solo carried the people away as they always do when rendered by artists. Very tasty songs—Capt. C. W. W. Nelson, Com'd'r. Co. I, 1st Inf., N.G.C.

PRESBYTERIAN EASTER SERVICES.

Rev. W. G. Brown preached both sermons on Easter Sunday at the Presbyterian Church to large audiences.

The church was very nicely decorated with flowers, and the choir was augmented with the addition of the Junior choir. The anthems rendered were Gounod's "Send Out Thy Light," and Handel's "I Lay My Sins on Jesus." The choir showed careful training and did very good work. Miss Bowker, of the Ladies' College, acted as organist at both services.

DEATH OF H. PUZEY.

The funeral of H. Puzey, an old and respected farmer, died at his place on Saturday last from St. Luke's Church.

The deceased, who had been ailing for some time, had been removed to the hospital, where he died on Thursday morning from heart failure. He was 65 years of age, and had been a resident of the parish since, in August of 1905, bringing with him his wife and family of four children, three boys and one girl. He followed the trade of a cooper, and prior in the Old Country and, though doing well, he considered there were more opportunities out here for his children, and it was for their sake that he came here.

Mr. Puzey had resided at the quarter on which his residence stood and purchased the two adjoining C.P.R. quarters.

He leaves behind him his widow, one daughter, Mrs. Robert Kaiser, and three sons, F. J., C. J. and E. C. Puzey.

The family will have the sympathy of their many friends and neighbors in their loss.

Rev. C. W. G. Moore conducted the funeral service.

DEATH OF SIR WILLIAM WHYTE

A wire came through yesterday announcing the sudden death of Sir Wm. Whyte, first Vice-President of the C.P.R., at Los Angeles, Cal., early Tuesday morning.

Methodist Church Easter Services

The Methodist Church was filled to the doors on Good Friday evening to hear the Sacred Cantata, "From Manger to Cross" by Wilfrid G. K. Johnston and W. F. Harris. The cantata is a most charming work with beautiful, bright choruses, and was splendidly rendered, bringing credit to all who took part in it, particularly to J. Edward Welton, the organist and conductor, who had trained the choir for this work. The special numbers were taken by Mrs. Wallace, Misses Black, Scott, Smith and Landon, and Messrs. E. G. Johns, G. K. Johnston, and W. F. Harris.

Professor Bland was the preacher at both services on Easter Sunday, the choir rendering special music, and C. Anderson singing "The Holy City" as a solo. Prof. Bland also addressed the men's meeting in the afternoon, his subject being "The Inside of the Cup."

Wedding Bells

A quiet wedding was celebrated yesterday morning at St. Luke's church between Joseph Arthur Northey, Dowling Lake, and Miss Marion Alice Love of Red Deer. The young couple are both very well known here. Miss Love is the eldest daughter of R. L. Lowe, assistant postmaster, who came from England with his family seven years ago. She is a most popular young lady, being a singer of exceptional merit, and she was for three years a member of St. Luke's choir. After passing through the high school here she took a course at Normal School, and has since been teaching school at Dowling Lake, where she met her husband.

Mr. Northey is the second son of the late Mr. Northey of Red Deer and is a prominent rancher in the Dowling Lake district.

After the wedding ceremony was over the party adjourned to the home of the bride's parents, Parkvale, where the wedding breakfast was served, after which the happy couple left on the noon train for the north to spend the honeymoon.

A quiet wedding was celebrated at St. Luke's Church, Tuesday morning, April 14th, at eleven o'clock, by the pastor, Rev. C. W. G. Moore, when Mrs. Alice L. Hives, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Carswell, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Andrew W. E. Lord, of the W. E. Lord Company, staff, the organist, Mr. Frank Young, playing the wedding march as the party left the church. The happy couple took the noon train for the south, followed by the best wishes of a host of friends, and any amount of rice and confetti. They will spend a short time at Banff, after which they will take up residence on Victoria Avenue.

ST. LUKE'S EASTER SERVICES

The Rev. O. Creighton took the three hours' service at St. Luke's on Good Friday, also the lantern slide service in the evening. The Easter Day services were well attended, the church being filled both morning and evening. Archdeacon Dewdney preached in the morning, the Rev. C. W. G. Moore preaching the sermon at the evening service. Special Easter music was rendered by the choir. At the morning service the beautiful anthem "King of Kings" was given, and at night "Behold, I am the Resurrection" was the anthem chosen.

FASHIONABLE WEDDING

Two Prominent Young People Married Last Wednesday

Probably the greatest social event that has taken place in Red Deer of recent years was the wedding of Miss Lillian Mae Smith to Joseph George LaFrance on Wednesday last. The bride is not only very popular, but one of the best known in Red Deer district, being the eldest daughter of our highly respected citizens, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Smith. She was born in Red Deer, and with the exception of the time spent at college, she has lived all her life here, being prominent among the young ladies in church work and entertainment and sport.

The bridegroom, Mr. LaFrance, is also well known here. He was some years ago teller in the Merchants Bank of the city, leaving that to open up business in real estate three or four years ago. He, however, gave that business up, and returned to the banking business, and it was not long before he gained a manager's position at Acme, where the happy couple's first home will be. Mr. LaFrance was very popular with all classes, being genial and a thorough good sport.

The marriage took place in the Leonard Gaetz Memorial Methodist Church, which was crowded with friends and citizens. The altar and pulpit were most beautifully decorated with palms and flowers. The wedding party consisted of the bride, Miss Lillian Mae Smith, the groom, Mr. Joseph George LaFrance, the bridesmaid, Miss Sadie Smith, who looked very charming indeed dressed in lemon-colored satin, veiled with shadow lace, and wearing a large black lace picture hat, and carrying a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

A. H. Weaver, of Calgary, acted as best man for the bridegroom, and the ushers were Charlie Percy and Clarence Smith, brothers of the bride, and Graham Whidden. The groom's gift to the bride was a pair of handsome earrings, to the bridesmaid a silver vanity box and chain, and to the best man a set of cuff links.

The reception after the ceremony was held at the spacious home of the bride's parents, which was beautifully and tastefully decorated with a profusion of cut flowers and ivy, about 250 guests attending, and entering the house through an artistic arch of green and white.

Mrs. Smith, mother of the bride, who received the guests, wore a beautiful gown of black brocade and black and black chamois lace.

The table in the tea room was covered with a magnificent Florentine lace cloth and decorated in a very artistic manner with ferns, carnations, etc.

The following ladies assisted in looking after the guests: Mrs. H. Parsons, Mrs. F. M. Hines, Mrs. J. Carlyle Moore, Mrs. W. A. Moore, Mrs. W. E. Lord, Mrs. Plaxton, Mrs. Woodworth, Mrs. H. L. Gaetz, Mrs. J. Gaetz, Mrs. R. L. Gaetz, Mrs. H. H. Gaetz, Mrs. Hugh Clarke, Mrs. J. Grant McGregor, Miss Elbert, Miss Ina Greene and Miss Olive Smith.

Appropriate music was rendered during the wedding breakfast by Mrs. F. W. Galbraith, Mrs. C. Hamilton and Miss Olive Smith.

There were three tables loaded with beautiful presents of silver, cut glass and other articles, including substantial cheques.

The bride's travelling dress was of broad blue and gold cloth, with modish hat to match.

The honeymoon will be spent in Vancouver and other coast cities, after which the happy couple will return, via the Arrowhead Lakes, to their new home at Acme, Alta.

The following is a list of the invited guests:

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Gaetz, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Gaetz, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Gaetz, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. M. Gaetz, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gaetz, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Gaetz, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gaetz, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Gaetz, Mr. and Mrs. J. Gaetz, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Gaetz, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Gaetz, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Stephenson, Dr. and Mrs. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Randall, Saskatoon; Mrs. McKellar, Saskatoon; Dr. and Mrs. Simpson, Lacombe; Miss Simpson, Miss Belle Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gibson, Calgary; Mr. A. Weaver, Calgary; Mr. and Mrs. Schmitzler, Calgary; Miss Schmitzler, Calgary; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Melrose, Mrs. Melrose, Mr. and Mrs. Bonnick, Mr. and Mrs. Best, Mr. and Mrs. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. A. Synopsis of Canadian North-west Land Regulations

Any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years old, may homestead a quarter section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. The applicant must appear in person at the Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-agency for the district. Entry by proxy may be made at agency, on certain conditions, by father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of intending homesteader.

Duties—Six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land, in each of three years. A homesteader may live within nine miles of his homestead on a farm of at least 80 acres, solely owned and occupied by him or by his father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister.

In certain districts a homesteader in good standing may pre-empt six months in each of six years from date of homestead entry (including the time required to earn homestead patent) and cultivate fifty acres extra.

A homesteader who has exhausted his homestead right and cannot obtain a pre-emption may enter for purchased homestead in certain districts. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate fifty acres and erect a house worth $200.

Pitcox News

On the event of Tom Peel being left a bachelor, a large number of his neighbors and friends took pity on him and invited his bachelor quarters to hold a surprise party, on Friday evening, April 3rd.

A very pleasant evening was spent with dancing, singing and recitations. J. O. Shabiby filled the office of J. M. C. Mrs. Ernest Kirk gave a beautiful recitation "A Brave Fireman."

Miss Lilly Perry recited "The Bachelor"; H. Eastman gave a fine recitation "Nothing to Wear."

A very fine supper was given, for which we have to thank the ladies of the party. Songs were rendered during the evening by Miss Lillian Blair, J. Under Why It's Always You; Miss Lilly and Violet Perry, "The Old Folks at Home"; J. O. Shaw, "The Bonnie Lassies"; George Simmons, "The Old Arm Chair"; Norman Eastman, "Till the Sands of the Desert Grow Cold"; H. S. Eastman, "Good Luck to you, Moggie"; Jim Rourke, "Bonnie Jean"; B. Bennett gave several of his comic songs. A fine exhibition of step dancing was given by Art Peterson and Will Phillips. Music was furnished by Messrs. Will Cruickshank, Harry Simmons, Joe Walsh, assisted Art Peterson. The party broke up in the very hours of the morning and they all hope that Tom will have a hostess of his own soon, so by the time the next surprise party is held at his place he won't have to borrow the services of Mrs. Perry, who so ably acted as hostess. Get a hustle on you, Tom, my boy. Good luck to you.

James Craig is busy remodeling his house.

We are sorry that Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Stockwell and family have left the district.

Ernest Kirk has returned home with his buzz saw after cutting all the firewood in the neighborhood.

Our genial friend Norman Eastman has purchased a fine young team. Hold them tight, Norman.

Dave Blair and Jim Smith have come to the Brimley to dig for coal.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Shaw are leaving the district for a short time. Avery is busy getting into the way of the farm, as he is to be left in charge.

We expect the Alhambra school to leave for the city this month with Mrs. Ralph Patterson as teacher.

Mr. Loisele has started work on the new sidewalk running from the Loisele pool hall to the new C.P.R. lines. It is to be a six foot walk. There is also a rumor that he will start on his big 500-foot pier as soon as the ice will allow. This is a much needed walk and will help the town quite a lot.

The roads are drying up fine, and things begin to look a lot like spring. The farmers in the district are getting ready to work on the land.

Mr. Rossi returned from France last week, bringing with him two friends who are expecting to take up business in the town.

The new implement store is just completed and all ready for business.

ZAM-BUK MRS. A. SAICH, of Cannington Manor, Sask., writes:—"My brother suffered severely from eczema. The sores were very extensive, and burned like coals into his flesh. Zam-Buk took out all the fire, and quickly gave him ease. Within three weeks of commencing with Zam-Buk treatment, every sore had been cured."

This is but one of the many cures we are constantly receiving from people who have proved the healing powers of Zam-Buk. For eczema, piles, sores, burns, cuts and all skin troubles there is nothing like this wonderful balm. No skin disease should be considered incurable until Zam-Buk has been tried.

MODEL INSTITUTION

Mix-Up in Asylum for Insane When Governor and Mayor Meet.

By GEORGE MUNSON.

The State Insane asylum at Pottsville was a model institution. It represented the last word that had been uttered upon the subject of the mentally deranged. Although the rooms for violent patients were barred and secured by double doors, they were splendidly furnished, while for those who were harmless there was little or no restriction inside the spacious grounds. In fact, when it celebrated its fifth anniversary by a given party, the governor, the mayor and a score of distinguished guests, their wives and their friends, walked freely within the walls, investigating, talking with keepers and inmates, penetrating into every nook and cranny. There was no skeleton in the Pottsville asylum, nor any blemish to be concealed.

Thus it happened that two men met in one of the spacious corridors, and, made friendly by the festive occasion and the dinner, at which visitors, guards and patients had sat down together, entered into conversation.

"This is a beautiful place," said the elder, a dignified gentleman wearing a frock coat and carrying a silk hat in his hand. "Though I am mainly responsible for its having been created, I confess that I am astonished at the perfection of all the details."

"The other shot a keen glance at him. 'You were responsible, sir?' he asked.

"Yes," said the other. "I am Governor Pike, you know."

"I'm very pleased to make your acquaintance, governor," said the younger, grasping the speaker's hand warmly. "I was late for the dinner or I should have met you before. I am the mayor of Pottsville—Arthur Jenkinson Grubbe."

"The first man retreated a step. 'Indeed, Mr. Mayor? I am delighted to meet you, even here,' he said, with a forced smile. 'Shall we go outside?'

"I'd prefer to show you something of our arrangements first, governor," the second man replied.

"No other article of food is more susceptible to the influence of its surroundings than eggs."

New-laid eggs do not always have the same flavor. The food and environment of the fowl are reflected in the taste of the egg. Hens fed upon onions for a few days will yield the onion taste in their eggs within a week. Eggs that are laid in foul, stinking manure will have the odor of the nest. Eggs that are laid in the country store in the same room with groceries will be injured in flavor in a short time. Eggs that are kept near the kitchen stove or in damp cellars are injured. Eggs that have been laid upon straw will become musty in a few hours.

Eggs even taste of the box board in which they are crated for shipment. Some poultry find a shell with a tincture of shell to be of finer flavor than the eggs with a white shell. A whole roomful of eggs packed and in storage have been known to take the flavor of lemons stored in the same building but separated from the eggs by a deck wall.

The taste of an egg is also influenced by the seasons. Spring eggs, when the fowls are at their best, are better flavored than winter eggs. Eggs that are laid in the winter are more varied and the summer heat has lessened their vitality.

Eggs that are stored at the right temperature in a well-ventilated room will give off a large part of the odors that are absorbed.

Eggs more than a week old are not strictly fresh, but if they are protected right and go quickly into the right kind of storage they will retain their original character, with the exception of a taste of the straw month, and will be as sweet and wholesome for most domestic uses for ten months. That is as long as is necessary for a year, for the crop of new-laid eggs will be in hand.

Unique Signs in France. Frederick C. Penfold was walking along a New Jersey road while his chauffeur fixed a broken tire. He noticed a danger sign at the roadside.

"In France," he said, "at the entrance to their towns they have signs which are characteristically French, and seem to me delightful in spirit. Over the road, as you enter the town, is an arch on which is printed the name of the town, the number of the road—for all the roads are numbered in France—and the name of the department in which the town lies. Then below those, in larger letters, Attention, you infants (the careful about the children). And then, as you leave the town, you see the back side of a similar sign, which says: 'Merci' (Thanks).

Hero Dogs. One of the most interesting classes in English dog shows is the 'herd dog' class. Dogs who have saved life from fire or drowning make up the chief proportion of herd dogs; and one year's entries also included a dog which had protected a policeman from a cat attack of a sort of kind, one that had rescued a child from being run over by a horse and wagon, and another who had helped a clergyman to find his 'lost' little daughter.

Nothing New. Those Futurist men who try to show their Futurism by wearing green and blue and pink hats are really a few centuries behind the times. Colorful hair is nothing but a back number. Ancient Rome saw the first of the craze, and the Roman matrons kept the wigmakers busy supplying them with hair of all hues for all occasions. Faustina, wife of Marcus Aurelius, had several hundred colored wigs in her wardrobe.

Stared at the Other in Amazement. other responded. "Won't you walk ahead of me? I know this institution pretty well, seeing that I laid the foundation stone during my first term of office."

The governor complied, somewhat grudgingly. "I suppose you have some interesting cases here," he said, with a display of interest. "Many of them doubtless think that they are sane."

"Most of them do," answered the other. "And some of them realize that they are celebrities confined for political reasons. For instance, out on the lawn at this moment there is a man engaged in talking with a friend of mine. He is a very well-known actor and acquaintance that he is Mayor Arthur Jenkinson Grubbe."

"But he isn't," stammered the governor. "You are the mayor and his body else can claim the title. By the way, aren't you related to King George of England?"

Arthur Jenkinson Grubbe stood still and stared at the other in amazement. "How did you know that?" he whispered huskily. "Yes, I'm his half-brother. And to be frank with you, he continued, 'I am also a half-brother of King Ferdinand of Bulgaria. In fact we used to play together on the board walk at Atlantic City when we were children. Won't you walk this way?'

"You amaze me!" responded Governor Pike.

"And you—you look as though you were of kingly blood," the mayor continued, with a scolding glance.

"Yes, yes," said Governor Pike hastily. "That is, I am a sister by marriage of the princess of Montenegro."

"Why, that's extraordinary," said the mayor. "Do you know, there is a lady in one of these apartments who claims to be the princess of Montenegro herself!"

"My sister," cried the governor. "You amaze me!"

"But to be frank with you, governor, I am afraid a dreadful error has been made. I hardly care to mention it, but we have never believed her statement. How terrible if we have incarcerated a sane lady by mistake! A dreadful wrong may have been done. You must recognize me!"

"I wish I could," the governor sighed, looking backward. "I think he stammered, 'that my uncle-in-law the duke of Saratoga, who is outside, can help in your arm.'"

"No, no," protested the mayor, taking the governor by the arm. "This is in here reading at this moment. I know who will recognize you. We will just see her for a moment. A very interesting creature, my dear sir, and a most accomplished creature here we are."

The outer door of the room at which they stopped, slightly ajar, disclosed an inner door within, which stood wide open, and a heavily barred window looking out upon the lawn. The two men passed through the outer door and stopped. They looked at each other menacingly. Suddenly the governor gave the governor a violent push, which sent him staggering upon the floor, slammed the inner door, and pulled at the handle of the outer door.

It was locked. It had closed behind them.

Even as the mayor realized this the inner door opened and the governor, white with rage, sprang upon his assailant, at the same time shrieking at the top of his voice. They fought all over the room.

"Help! Help!" yelled the governor, and the mayor echoed his shouts. They heard answering cries from the lower benches. Then again came quickly along the corridor, and the door flew open again, disclosing two disheveled and panting antagonists seated upon the floor with puffed eyes and scarred faces. Two doctors came running in.

"Governor Pike!" shouted one, hurrying toward him. "My dear governor, what has occurred? Who is this man?"

"He continued, turning upon his heel angrily. 'Who did he get here? I told you to keep the violent patients in the padded cells all day.'"

But—but this is the mayor, Mr. Arthur Jenkinson Grubbe," shouted the other. "This is a hideous mistake!"

But why did he assault the governor, then? How did he get him here?"

"He told me he was the sister of the princess of Montenegro," said the mayor solemnly, as he began dressing his clothes.

You told me you were a half-brother of the king of Bulgaria, didn't you?"

"To humor you, sir; to humor you, I thought you were in the primary stage of acute mania."

"Ah, well," said the governor, stretching out his hand, which the other took reluctantly. "I believe in open primaries now. Don't let that idea cross your mind."

A meeting of the Council of Local Improvement District 339 was held at the Oddfellows' Hall, Red Deer, on April 6th, 1914, all members present. The minutes of last meeting were read, and on motion of McConnell and Gilbert were adopted.

Correspondence from the Surveys Department re. road in Sec. 10-38-26, promising to look the matter up.

Councillor Gilbert submitted a letter from W. Mohring, Government road foreman, accepting the offer of Councillor Gilbert to expend $500 on the Coal Trail if the Government would spend a like amount.

Councillors Ross and Gilbert were appointed a committee to go over the road with Foreman Mohring.

McConnell and Ross—that the Chairman and Secretary borrow $3,000 to meet current expenditure.

Ross and McConnell—that a rebate of ten per cent be allowed on all current taxes paid before July 1st, 1914.

McConnell and Wark—that the Secretary write the Surveys Branch for the following diversions: Between Secs. 27 and 28, and 33 and 34, 20-25-4. Also between 3 and 4, 20-25-4.

G. W. Smith interviewed the Council re. the high level bridge across the coulee between 8 and 17-38-27. After discussion it was decided to petition the Council and Ross, that the Secretary co-operate with the Board of Trade and take the matter over with the C.P.R. re. this crossing.

C. Cruickshank interviewed the Council re. opening the streets leading into Red Deer West and West Park.

It was decided to ask Mr. Cruickshank to submit a plan showing the streets required to be opened up this year.

On motion of Gilbert and McConnell, the Secretary was authorized to pay all outstanding accounts.

It was decided to hold the next meeting at the north end of Pine Lake at the call of the Chairman and Secretary.

Meeting adjourned.

BOTTOMLESS LAKE DISCOVERED IN ROCKIES

BY FORESTERS

In the heart of the snow-cloaked Rockies, hundreds of miles west of Edmonton, lies a lake whose waters are always troubled, into which a large river flows but out of which there is no visible exit. The leader of a forest survey party sent out by the Dominion Forestry Branch to examine the forests in this wild region states that the Indians have called this lake as the abode of evil spirits, and, to give credence to their superstition, from time to time deep rumblings may be heard here far below the surface the water swirls through the hidden outlet. The river that enters the lake rushes from a subterranean cave many miles down the valley, the portal of which no man has ever yet passed.

This summer the Dominion Forestry Branch sent eight survey-parties into the forests of the far West, and the story of their experiences reads like fiction. One party spent the summer in the wild region of northern Manitoba; three parties were in the hills of Saskatchewan north of Prince Albert; one party was in the Rockies all summer; another was cut off from civilization for several months in the Yukon; and the story of their adventures reads like fiction. "CATCH-MY-PAL"

"There are five men at the lamp-post you ought to get to sign the pledge," said a workingman to Rev. J. R. Patterson. He went back with the speaker to the group. They talked the matter over. Signed the pledge within a week. "Next week I want you to bring in a man each on sign the pledge," said Mr. Patterson to the group. Next week there were eleven, six new men and five of the first lot. One man was away looking after a sick relative. Next week there were thirty-one men, boozers, toppers, sonkers of the worst type. Next week one hundred and five. Within five weeks six hundred men had signed. Within one year 140,000 men had signed the pledge in Ireland.—"Catch-My-Pal Movement."

CONSERVING THE RACE

New Prison Treatment Economic of Citizens

Col. Clark in responding to the toast, "Canada," at the annual dinner of the Canadian Prison Association said that while in the past Canada had been prodigal of its great assets, the problem of conservation was being taken up and that the idea of conservation included the men, women and children living and working in Canada. The speaker asserted that the new idea in treating prisoners and criminals was that every prisoner was not a criminal and that every criminal was not a prisoner. In connection with this idea he spoke of the Quebec prison farm, where men are given a fresh start.

Great Britain, Col. Clark asserted, had made mistakes, but was still the greatest single secular force for good in the world. As long as Britain retained that distinction, so long would she occupy the position of leadership.

Careful But Lose

That the fruit growers who take the best care of their orchards will be the heaviest losers on account of the damage to the fruit crop, was logically explained by Prof. W. T. Macoun of Ottawa at the convention of the growers of the Niagara district, the opening session of which was held at Grimsby. The progressive grower who cultivated and pruned for fruit development, cutting back the wood, assisted in the early advance of the buds brought on by the unusually mild weather of the early winter, which was followed by an unprecedented season of zero weather which killed the premature buds.

Realistic Dogs

A few friends were discussing the merits of great painters the other night. A gentleman in the company said that Michael Angelo once painted a cherry tree outside his house which was so natural that the birds used to try to pick fruit from the tree. A carpet weaver in the company said that was nothing for being natural. He was weaving some rugs with dogs in the design, and every time the wire came across the hindquarters of the dogs to cut the pile the dogs yelped. Then there was a silence in the company that could be felt.

FIRST WHITE MEN IN NORTH AMERICA

Scientist States They Crossed Pacific to Peru—Fair Haired and Bearded

In the London Times Mr. Derek Manson puts forward the theory, which is now generally accepted, that many centuries ago there was a race of white men in America, and that a while race inhabited America in pre-historic times is proved by a number of facts which fit in with this theory. There is, for instance, the prophecy of the return of the white god, Quetzalcoatl, which inspired the Mexicans with the belief that it was being fulfilled by the arrival of the Spaniards, and which made the conquest of the country much easier for the invaders. Again, among certain tribes of Indians in America there is to be found a number possessed of fair hair and complexions. These fair types of Indians are to be found only on or near the Pacific coast, and the number of Indians thus distinguished from their fellows is too widespread to admit of the suggestion that this intermingling of blood is of recent origin. In the same districts there have been discovered the remains of a forgotten civilization in the form of ancient buildings of majestic proportions and carvings representing types of a distinctly Aryan origin, quite different from the native races of Indians.

Mr. Manson's theory is that thousands of years ago a foreign race migrated across the Pacific Ocean to America, where they founded civilizations that had crumbled into dust ages before Columbus reached its shores. Fair haired and bearded, they must have been Europeans. It is believed that this migration was gradual and by way of the islands of the Pacific. The inhabitants of Polynesia are of Aryan origin, a fact which seems to support this theory of a European migration. Moving from island to island, this seafaring white people finally reached America, landing in Peru and neighboring regions. As the coasts of Peru dried up they were driven northwards to Central America and Yucatan, where their civilization survived for four thousand years. Then the race perished off the face of America, leaving traces of its existence in vague traditions, in ruined buildings, and pale-faced Indians. This! all that remained to attest the existence of a hardy white people finally reached America, crossed the Pacific and built up empires and civilizations the memory of which has long since perished with their transient glories.

EDUCATED CLASS DECREASES

Feminist Movement Menaces Its Supremacy

Edwin Brant Conklin, head of the department of biology in Princeton University, in a lecture, declared that the time has come when society must take account of the immense importance of heredity in the development of an individual. "Hitherto all the attention of society has been fixed on education and environment," he said. "Hereafter, more attention must be given to improvements of heredity or eugenics."

At the present rate of reproduction, Prof. Conklin said, the more highly educated classes would be unknown within a period of fifty years. Eugenics is right, he continued, in insisting that the higher classes pay more attention to reproduction. The lower classes are increasing in number and the outcome of it will be that the higher classes will be swallowed up by the lower, he said.

Prof. Conklin declared the feminist movement of to-day, because it shows unmistakable signs of women escaping the duty of motherhood, a sign which means degeneration of the race in time, he said.

Largest Hats in the World

What would you think of a hat that was so large it would safely shelter your father, mother, sisters and yourself under it should a sudden rain-storm come up? The men of Korea like these enormous hats and would not feel properly dressed without them. These hats look like great flower pots set on a round table six feet across. The crowns are nine feet in height, and three inches wide, much like a chimney on a one-story house. How do you suppose these large, round head coverings are kept on? Under the brim is a small, close-fitting cap, held on by a padded string which ties under the ears. The material of these hats is bamboo, so finely split that it is like thread; and, lastly, they are varnished to keep out the sun, and rain, and the wind.

St. George's Day Celebration

The Sons of England concert, to be given on St. George's Day, Thursday, April 23rd, in the Parish Hall, promises to be one of the best local concerts ever staged. Some of Red Deer's talented singers have promised their assistance, and they are the equal of the best in the province, a fact we are proud of here, and this alone guarantees success. Many requests have been made to the committee that a dance follow the concert, and to meet these requests it has been decided to put on an informal dance, giving those desirous of a couple of hours' enjoyment in that line the chance without having to go to any trouble or expense, as the charge will only be 25c per head to pay for the hall. Refreshments are being provided by the members, which will be free, and on the tables during the whole of the dance. Card tables are also being provided, so that everyone should be enabled to spend the evening of St. George's Day in a very enjoyable manner.

LIBERAL GRAFT EXPOSED.

The Grain Growers' Guide, the organ of the organized farmers of Alberta and Saskatchewan, has this to say on the revelations into Liberal graft on the National Transcontinental and also on the Trent Valley Canal:

Following upon the National Transcontinental disclosures comes the report of scandalous graft on the part of the employees of the late Dominion Government on the Trent Valley Canal. Though the amount of money involved is not nearly so large, this case is in many ways worse than the other, for dozens of people, men and women, bankers, lawyers, dentists, doctors, undertakers, barbers, watchmen and newspaper men were involved, and were demoralized and degraded by being made the tools of dishonest Government employees and politicians.

The fact that some of the lost went into the Liberal campaign fund is also established by the report of the investigation presented to Parliament by J. H. Ferguson, M.P.P. for Grenville, Ont., and altogether there is disclosed about as bad a case of graft and fraud as can be imagined. The method of the grafters was to purchase goods or to have work done which had no relation to the operation of the canal, and then instead of paying for it out of their own pockets, to put someone on the canal payroll and pay them wages out of the public funds until their bill was settled. The chief officials concerned are J. H. McClellan, canal superintendent; A. J. Grant, canal engineering engineer, and George A. Mothersill, auditing engineer at Ottawa.

Mr. McClellan, however, seems to have been the chief culprit, and of him Mr. Ferguson says:

"He has not only practiced deception and dishonesty himself, but has condoned it and winked at it in others."

Mr. McClellan, however, did not keep everything to himself. He was always ready to lend the government boat, the "Bessie Butler," to his friends, and the refreshments which his guests consumed were paid for by putting the liquor dealers, the grocers, and the cooks on the payroll as laborers. The telephone company's agent was put on as a laborer to pay for the telephone in Mr. McClellan's house, and jewelers, furniture dealers, druggists and confectioners who supplied goods to his household were paid in the same way. Transportation for Mr. McClellan's friends when they went on their holidays was paid for by putting the name of the G.T.R. agents on the payroll as carpenters. The manager of the Royal Bank, at Peterboro, figured on the payroll as a laborer, but just what kind of labor he did on the canal is not stated. J. R. Stratton, the former Liberal member for West Peterboro, is directly implicated in the affair by Mr. McClellan, who stated that Mr. Stratton told him there should be an election fund of from $5,000 to $7,000 a year from the Canal office. He proceeded on that basis, and although the accounts were in a chaotic condition, Mr. Ferguson was able to trace about $2,000 that went into the campaign fund instead of into the public treasury. Mr. Stratton unfortunately is ill and has not been able to make any explanations, and judgment on his conduct must be suspended until he has been heard from. Mr. McClellan, however, has admitted his guilt, and the investigation has certainly revealed a very rotten state of affairs, for which the late Liberal Government must be held responsible. If members of the Government knew what was going on, no condemnation is too strong for them. On the other hand, if the Minister of the Department did not know, it shows that there is something radically wrong with the system amounting to almost criminal negligence. If the Liberals had remained in office instead of being defeated in 1911, all this graft would probably never have been uncovered and would have still been in progress, and that condition of affairs probably had something to do with the fact that Peterboro assisted in the downfall of the Laurier Government by defeating J. B. Stratton and electing J. H. Burham in his place. All these serious charges by Mr. Ferguson will, of course, be threshed out in Parliament.

THE ALBERTAN COMES BACK.

The Calgary Albertan continues to claim that it is not enough to restore the resources to the people of Alberta, stolen from them by the Liberals, but Mr. Borden should also compensate the province for all lands sold. Mr. Michener contends it unreasonable to ask such a thing. But the Albertan says:

"No Conservative newspaper—not even that blue-blooded Conservative, The Red Deer News—has come forth to support Leader Michener in his contention that the three western premiers in asking a moderate grant in lieu of land alienated from the crown, were extreme and unreasonable."

The Albertan states an untruth in the above paragraph, because we replied to the Albertan's ravings a month ago. On March 11th we said: "Mr. Borden has no more right to compensate the west for the wrong done Alberta by the Liberal government than he has to compensate the people of Canada for the $40,000,000 stolen from them by the Transcontinental grafters under the same Liberal government."

This appears to have hit the Albertan in a tender spot, because it has taken it a whole month to come back.

NEW HOMESTEAD LAW.

Owing to the rough state of many farms with brush, the homesteader has been at his wit's end at times to get enough land cleared to fulfil his homestead duties, and a strong appeal was made some time ago for farmers and ranchers out west to have the homestead lands changed so that a homesteader could get his patent by having a certain number of cattle on his farm. That has now been given them by the government, and it will be of the greatest benefit to settlers.

We give a brief digest of the new provisions of the homestead laws. One clause reduces the time for securing patents on pre-emption from six to three years and abolishes the interest charges of five per cent. However, a homesteader has the option of paying for his pre-emption in six years and in that case is charged interest during the last three years.

Another important amendment allows homesteaders on land which is not of the highest grade to qualify for their patent by keeping stock instead of breaking land to a certain amount as at present. The first year there must be five head of cattle, in the second year ten, and in the third year fifteen. On pre-emption land, the homesteader can also secure his patent by keeping stock in lieu of cultivation, except that by the third year he must have twenty-four head of stock instead of sixteen. The principal object of this amendment is to encourage mixed farming and cattle raising. There are a number of other amendments, of which the most important withdraws from entry or sale lands adjacent to water powers. There are also a number of changes in the irrigation act, but they are largely technical, such as arranging for order of precedence for disposal of water for municipal and other purposes. The amendments to the forest reserve act provide for the addition of certain areas to the present forest reserve, chiefly in Alberta and Saskatchewan. A year ago these areas were temporarily placed under the act and they are now permanently a part of the forest reserve.

There are always difficulties attending the disturbance of an established order of things. Some settlers thought that pre-emption interest which had been paid would have to be refunded in order that he who paid should be placed on an equal footing with him who was in arrears, providing such arrears were wiped off. Such a scheme would result in an intolerable tangle and our understanding is that there will be no rebate and that arrears will have to be collected up to the present time. Then all affected can start out evenly under the new arrangement. The waiving of the interest will mean considerable to the small settler and the permission to place cattle on the land instead of tilling it is satisfactory, both to the farmer and to the consumer in the city. Dr. Roche has approached the problems of the western settler in a highly satisfactory manner.

A SHORT LINE FROM CALGARY TO YELLOWHEAD

Red Deer Looms Up Big In The Scheme

CANADIAN-NORTHERN IS SAID TO BE PLANNING IMPORTANT CUT-OFF

The announcement of the C. P. R. that they will not send their boats through the Panama canal and will not abandon their eastern route for the southern waterway has caused the C.N.R. to consider the building of a short grain line from Calgary to the Yellowhead Pass, meeting the main line near the western side of the mountains. The line would really be an extension of the Warden, Red Deer and Brazeau lines branch, but would connect with the new Calgary-Edmonton line and furnish almost a direct route from this city to the coast.

A SUBSTANTIAL CUT-OFF. The building of this extension to the main line at the pass will cut off the long haul around by Edmonton for southern Alberta grain. The new line from Lethbridge to Calgary will be part of the grain route, and farmers will be able to ship their grain by C.N.R. as cheaply as they can over any other railway to the coast.

POTENTIAL MONEY SAVER. According to the information given to the Calgary News-Telegram, it is generally known among railway officials that the C.P.R. does not intend to carry grain shipped over that line by way of the Panama canal. The C.N.R., however, and the G. T.P., may use that route, and it is claimed that millions of dollars can be saved each year through shipping grain to European markets in that way.

At the present time it costs approximately $30 per ton to ship grain across the continent, but it is estimated that when the Panama canal is opened for traffic to the west, it will not exceed $6 per ton. The C.N.R. intends for the southern Alberta trade, and the plans to construct a line that will be able to carry the grain of the central part of the province to Vancouver and have very little further to haul it, that if it went over the direct line of the C. P. R.

The Warden, Red Deer and Brazeau lines branch is now completed, and to finish the project of only 70 more miles have to be constructed. The work on this line is expected to commence just as soon as the Calgary-Edmonton line is completed to Red Deer.

School Board Meeting

A meeting of the above Board took place on Friday, April 10th, in the Board room with Messrs. Payne, Gaetz, Sanders and Munro present. The first business taken was the Principal's report, as follows:

The Board of School Commissioners. Gentlemen,—From the report of the registers, compiled, the enrollment for the month of March was 524; daily present, 482; average of percentages, 92.5. The enrollment for the corresponding month of last year was 481. The shield for highest percentage in the higher grades goes to Miss Patterson's room with an average of 96.1, and in the primary to Miss Smith's room, average 95.44.

As I shall be away Easter week, I thought it advisable to have an idea as to the number of new pupils that were to enroll, so I had asked all to present themselves on April 6th, and have the necessary changes take effect on opening after Easter. In Miss Tyler's room 22 came, and in Miss Land's 13; in Miss Smith's, 10. None have yet presented themselves, about 5 will be starting next Tuesday, that will make the total about 40, nearly double the number of any previous year.

All our primary departments are already fully crowded, and it is impossible to put any of these in there. There are some possible solutions for the condition, and I will give them in order of merit.

1st.—To engage a teacher and open a new class in the basement in the Assembly Hall. We have blackboards already there, and all that would be necessary is a couple of long tables, suitable size, and chairs. This class would be in only for one hour or so, morning and afternoon, and the rest of the time the teacher assist the primary teachers with lessons in reading for those that are behind their class.

This method has the merit of not disturbing any of the other classes, and it is the closest solution in the rooms that most need it.

2nd.—To divide Grade VI between Miss Cole and Miss Davidson, the successor to Miss Patterson. This arrangement will put about 45 on each of these teachers and two grades, which will make the work rather heavy. Besides Grade VI, which has already experienced a change of teachers and the suggested arrangement will mean another. Miss Freeman, the teacher in Grade VI, would be given charge of the new pupils in one of the school rooms.

The only merit in this arrangement is that there will be no need of an extra teacher.

3rd.—To permit only those pupils that are 6 years of age to attend and place them in the primary room. There are 8 in Miss Land's, 4 in Miss Tyler's. These could be arranged for without much difficulty.

The Militia Department grants a small allowance to itself as instructor of the cadets. I have engaged Sergeant Harvey to give them instruction in drill. I have also given him the grant that is allowed me. This frees me from that duty which takes one half hour per week.

The Provincial Educational Association meets this year at Lethbridge, and the expenses of attendance are very high. I have advised the Public School teachers to continue school next week unless I hear to the contrary.

As Mr. Gibson and myself are going, I thought it advisable to close the High School alone.

Accounts amounting to $985 were passed.

Forty new pupils attended the schools on April 6th, and it was decided to open an extra room in the Assembly Hall and to hire a new teacher.

The Inspector's report was brought in, but owing to its length and the recommendations it contained, it was decided to adjourn until Friday, April 17th, when it could be dealt with more fully.

New Railway to Edmonton Is Under Way

Calgary, April 6th.—Grading has been started on the new Calgary-Edmonton line of the C.N.R. and already 28 miles—a portion of each end of the road—has been completed. The road is being built in a semi-circular route from this city to the capital.

Last fall a short distance of the Calgary-Macleod line—which is a continuation of the Calgary-Edmonton road—was completed, and work will now be completed this year and will give the C.N.R. the most direct route from this city to the capital.

The new Calgary-Edmonton line is graded out of this city for several miles. This work was completed, and the grading also started at the Edmonton end of the line without any one outside of the company knowing anything about it. The road is as straight as an arrow, according to the route map, and has no twists or turns. It runs almost parallel to the Calgary-Macleod line, and is generally speaking, and is absolutely a new line into this city, not overlapping any part of the other line of the C.P.R.

MOTHERS' PENSION PLAN

Novel Undertaking by People of an Indiana Town

A mothers' pension plan is in effect in Evansville, although there is no law in Indiana creating a mothers' pension fund.

The pension arose, it was announced through a newspaper that she would be forced to give away two of her children. She said that since the death of her husband she had earned a scant living at the washboard, but that her health had begun to fail and she could no longer bear the burden so long.

Mrs. J. H. Conn, president of the Cumberland Circle of King's Daughters, took up the matter, and several other people in the city became interested and agreed to give Mrs. Kelly a certain sum each week for one year. This led to the organization of Mothers' Pension Club No. 1, and the club has paid Mrs. Kelly $2.50 each week.

WAGES FOR HENS

Novel Lawsuit Between Two American Neighbors

A unique lawsuit has been settled in Omaha, in which the court officially placed the wages of a hen for hatching out a setting of goose eggs at 27 cents and sum against the owner of the eggs.

Soren Lund and Louis Naugle were neighbors. Lund had seventeen goose eggs. Naugle had a hen that wanted to "set." The two men arranged that Lund's hen and the gooslings would be divided equally between the two. Four of the eggs were not good and thirteen hatched out.

Two days later a thief got into the chicken house and stole the gooslings. Naugle thereupon filed suit against Lund for the time his hen consumed in hatching out the eggs. Two lawyers represented each man and the case occupied the attention of Justice C. W. Brit's court for nearly three days.

Naugle triumphed, and the court allowed him 97 cents as the wages of his hen during the time she was setting. Lund thereupon appealed the case to the higher courts.

Church Too Dignified

Terrible Effects of Alcohol Outlined by Speakers

There were scenes of stirring enthusiasm at Massey Hall, Toronto, when Rev. J. R. Patton told the convention of the Dominion Alliance the story of the "Catch-My-Pain" movement. The transformation scene which came over Armagh and other Irish cities and towns and villages was told in a manner which brought tears to the eyes of a great many.

"I want the men who make the problem to go and solve it. The desire for drink was lost in the desire of saving. The Church's work is half-finished with too much dignity. Go down into the gutter and pick up your fallen brother and sister."

Dr. J. Edmund Dube of Laval University, treated the subject of temperance from the standpoint of the scientific man. Scientific opinion and the results of experiments declared alcohol to be a poison.

"I have a large practice myself," said the doctor, "but I never prescribe a drop of alcohol. The dire results of drinking by entire women upon their children, causing all sorts of deformities, and the dangers as far as heredity goes were sketched with an unerring effect."

"Alcohol in the blood of a father is a awful," said the doctor. "Morrill has stated a law that children of alcoholic parents will disappear after the fourth generation. The earliest road to tuberculosis," said the speaker, "is lined with whiskey bottles."

Performing Horse Dies

The death occurred of a wonderful performing horse, Alpha, which belonged to Mr. R. D. C. Shaw of Great Falls. The animal, which had performed before several members of the royal family, could play the national anthem on a harmonium, could write its own name on a slate with chalk held in its mouth, and could do difficult sums in the first four rules. Another horse, Little Bell, also belonging to Mr. Shaw, accompanied Alpha on show, and together they could play "Home, Sweet Home," with bells fastened on their feet.

Red Indian Tango

The Red Indian has caught the tango fever. The whole Shoshone nation of Nevada Indians has learned the dance, and the old tribal gyrations are now entirely discarded. The Indians of the White Pine country have started the construction of a large hall to be devoted exclusively to the practice of the tango. Three Indian maidens, who have mastered its intricacies, are besieged with pupils eager to pay $2.50 for a lesson.

ADVICE TO FRUIT MEN

Consumers Will Always Pay For the Best

"One must have the ability to produce fruit of better quality and more cheaply than his competitor to be successful," said Dr. H. A. Surface, of Harrisburg, Pa., to the Niagara Fruit Growers' Association convention. "Produce the best and the consumer will pay for it. Don't put good fruit in a poor package. Feed and water a tree when it needs it, just like a person." He strongly advised specialization in any community on one class of fruits. Keeping trees low headed was recommended, as this makes it easier to prune, spray and pick. Dr. Surface expressed himself strongly in favor of co-operation among growers, both in the buying of supplies and the sale of products.

In an address on "The Most Profitable Commercial Fertilizers for the Orchard," Prof. R. Harcourt, of the Ontario Agricultural College pointed out the value of growing linum crops, like the clover, and plowing them under for the purpose of adding nitrogen to the soil, which these crops do by means of nodules on their roots.

"Nitrogen," he said, "is the most expensive and valuable of all plant foods. Potash and phosphorus are always present in the soil, and it is easy to the tiller to make them available by proper methods of cultivation. Humus or decaying vegetable matter in the soil is one of the important factors in rendering all these constituents available for the use of the plants."

"Many soils are deficient in lime, which is necessary to neutralize acidity and to aid in keeping the texture in the desired condition. Lime is secured cheapest in the form of dust from a stone-crusher. Before buying a pound of fertilizer, one must first look to the presence and condition of organic matter and lime in his soil, and he must be prepared to give good cultivation. Of all fertilizers barnyard manure is the best, but it can be used to excess."

Board of Trade

At the quarterly meeting of the Board of Trade on Wednesday evening there were present Messrs. Weller, President; McCall, Secretary; H. Gaetz, McLennan, Lowes, H. J. Snell, R. L. Gaetz, Whitehouse, L. Joyce, Galbraith, C. W. Gaetz, and others.

The report of the Council recommending the appointment of special Market, Literature, Hotel and C. P. R. committees, and referring to C. N. R. correspondence. The report continued: "The membership according to the Secretary's books at present is 99; of these only 14 have paid their 1914 dues."

The Secretary reports having written and mailed 275 letters since his appointment, February 9th and up to April 1st, including 40 answers to enquiries, under the following heads: Enquiries re homesteads 17; Land valuations 11; Enquiries from farmers 18; Openings for farm help 6; mechanics 6; contractors 2; brewers 1; hotel and restaurant 1; wholesale produce 1; optician 1; tailor shop 1; sundry 8. Total 93.

There were also 110 pieces of literature sent out during the same period. The Secretary gets out a weekly letter of news items of which 25 or 30 copies are sent to various public agencies, all over Canada, and the British Empire. These are published freely, and the Alberta Government Publicity Agent, Edmonton writes that he is circulating it as far as possible wherever and whenever the opportunity occurs.

The Secretary is at present endeavoring to secure from all the resident farmers within twenty miles of Red Deer all the information possible about the line of amount of produce, and other general farm stock, number of acres under cultivation, what grains grown, amount of fertilizer used, and to give them all assistance in getting out future literature.

There have been four farm hands placed on farms within the past week through the Board office. The report was adopted.

The President was appointed to attend the Edmonton Board of Trade's 25th Anniversary banquet, which he could make it convenient.

The committee on the Alberta hotel considered the Council should handle this matter, and passed a resolution urging the Council to follow up the work of last year.

The meeting adjourned at 11.

EARLY CLOSING BY-LAW

NOTICE is hereby given that a petition has been presented to the Council of the City of Red Deer under the provisions of The Early Closing Act, praying for the passing of the following closing by-law: A By-law to provide for the early closing of barber shops within the City of Red Deer.

WHEREAS pursuant to The Early Closing Act a petition has been presented by the proprietors of certain barber shops in the City of Red Deer, requesting the municipal council of the City of Red Deer to fix the hours of the City of Red Deer to close and afterwards all barber shops in the City shall be closed for serving of customers and in said petition allege that which constitute at least two-thirds in number of the proprietors of barber shops in the City of Red Deer.

AND WHEREAS, pursuant to the prayer of said petition, the municipal Council deems it necessary and expedient to pass this By-law:

NOW THEREFORE THE MUNICIPAL COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF RED DEER, DULY ASSEMBLED, ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

1. From and after the coming into force of this By-law, all barber shops within the city of Red Deer, and each of them, shall be closed on each and every Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday nights of the week, between the hours of seven o'clock in the evening and eight o'clock in the forenoon of the next following day, on Wednesday nights between the hours of nine o'clock in the evening and eight o'clock in the forenoon of the next following day. On Saturday nights between the hours of twelve o'clock in the evening and eight o'clock in the forenoon of the following Monday morning, except as follows:

Nights immediately preceding any day which may be a holiday by Statute or by proclamation of the Governor-General of Canada in Council, the Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Alberta in Council, or proclamation of the City of Red Deer, when such shops shall be closed later than the hour of eleven o'clock in the evening, and on holidays coming on Mondays or Saturdays the said shops shall close at the hour of twelve o'clock in the forenoon.

2. This By-law shall come into force and be effective when it has been approved by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

3. Any person violating any of the provisions of this By-law shall be liable on summary conviction, (a) for a first offence, to a fine not exceeding Five ($5) dollars and costs; (b) for a second offence, to a fine not exceeding twenty-five ($25) dollars and costs; (c) for a third or any subsequent offence to a fine not exceeding one hundred ($100) dollars and costs;

Provided that no person shall be guilty of an offence against this By-law who serves after closing hour any customer who was in the shop prior to such closing hour.

DONE AND PASSED in open Council this day of March, A.D. 1914.

Secretary-Treasurer.

NOTICE is hereby given that objections to the petition presented to the Council praying for the passing of such By-law on the ground that such petition is insufficient, or that or otherwise affecting the validity of such By-law, must be filed with the Secretary-Treasurer of the City of Red Deer, on or before the 15th day of May, 1914, and that if no such objections are filed before the said date the Council will forthwith proceed to pass the said By-law.

A. T. STEPHENSON, Secretary-Treasurer.

NOTICE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of the City of Red Deer proposes issuing a local improvement by-law, without a referendum of the ratepayers, for carrying out the following works as local improvements in the City of Red Deer, and assessing the cost thereof against the persons registered or assessed as owners of the land abutting on the street or place whereon or wherein the improvements are to be made, or of the lands to be benefited by the local improvement, unless within two weeks after the last publication of this notice a petition is presented to the Council against the proposed work, signed by a majority of the owners of the lands to be affected, representing at least one-half in value thereof, exclusive of improvements thereon.

This notice will appear in the issues of "The News" published on the 15th and 22nd of April, 1914.

COUNCIL MEETING

The regular meeting of the City Council was held in the Council Chamber, Thursday, April 9, Mayor Carswell presiding over a full Council.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Applications were read from A. Morris and Robert Robinson for position of foreman of public works. Canadian Federation of Boats of Trade and Municipalities re. Georgian Bay deep waterway. Filed.

A. Taylor, Secretary of the Fire Brigade, thanking the Council for the substantial increase of pay granted to firemen attending fires.

John Grant, bringing his name before Council as an expert in produce and live stock markets.

City barbers, enclosing by-law respecting early closing of barber shops. E. D. Vining, Edmonton, asking when official estimate of population of Red Deer was made, and what number.

Merchants Bank of Red Deer, acknowledging receipt of sealed envelope containing bond of City Treasurer and assistant.

James Nash, Cochrane, seeking information of district and Crown lands. Filed.

FIRE CHIEF'S REPORT.

Fire Chief Meeres presented his monthly report as follows: There were five regular practices, with an average attendance of 13.8 firemen. No false alarms. One fire at the Mattress Factory with five firemen in attendance. The loss at this fire was about $300 on building and $500 on stock, all covered by insurance. The water pressure was good. The fire alarm system has been tested at every regular practice. Both fire rigs have been repainted, striped and varnished, and present a smart appearance.

The Frank horse is very bad on his ankles some days, and would recommend advice of a veterinarian.

The total weight scales receipts for the month were $52.85.

The cement floor and gutter was completed and works very satisfactorily. All of which is respectfully submitted.

POLICE

Chief of Police monthly report: Seven arrests made, six being for drunk and disorderly, and one arrested on warrant of the Innisfail police. Had prosecuted a person whom a warrant had been made out against, but who left the City before action could be taken, but who had been arrested at Grassy Lake and brought here for trial. Number of arrests, 12. Doors found open 8.

Three summons served, two for riding horses at excessive pace, and the third for driving over the boulevard. Two runaway boys from the Industrial School at Lacombe were taken into custody and handed over to their parents, who came after them.

38 persons were provided with a bed during the month. Monies collected $31.

Alberta Ladies' College, re. installation of automatic valve for water service to the college.

Village of North Red Deer, renewing the agreement for a period of 12 months for the use of the Red Deer City Nuisance Grounds at the same rate as last year, viz., $100.

T. Fowler and J. Cooney, proprietors of pool rooms in the city, appeared before the Council, and asked that their license fees be reduced from the amount of $100 to the same as the provincial license. They maintained that the license imposed was excessive and a hardship. It cost them $95 to do business, and the way things had been for the past twelve months it did not warrant such a sum. They did not expect the Council to be so lenient in the matter at once; they were willing to appear before them at another time and discuss the matter more fully, but they felt they were being made to pay more in proportion than other businesses.

The Mayor pointed out to the delegates the system of taxation decided upon by the Council, and which they thought was the most just and fair all round, and he did not see just how they could reduce the amount, but the Council would go more fully into the matter and let them know the result.

The question was again taken up at a later stage and fully discussed, when the Council decided to take no action.

A. Morris appeared before the Council in support of his application for the position of City Foreman, and gave some details as to his experience in the work which a City Foreman would be called upon to do.

The question of the appointment was taken up later on, and the merits of the applicants fully discussed.

Alderman Watson pressed the point that in the matter of the laying of water mains a practical man should run in the lead, and he was responsible to the foreman for the work, instead of it being left to two or three different men to do it. Mr. Morris was eventually appointed foreman at a salary of $100 per month, on motion of Alderman Carswell and Watson.

COMMISSIONERS' REPORT.

The Commissioners brought in the following report: We recommend that the by-laws to be voted on by the burgesses on the 14th inst. be authorized to call for tenders for the debentures up to noon, May 4th, 1914.

The bonds of the Secretary-Treasurer, assistant and the combination of the vault have been deposited in the Merchants Bank, deliverable only to the Mayor on his demand.

All the sewers have been flushed.

The sewer outlet is in a satisfactory condition, but will likely need repairing after the ice goes out of the river.

We recommend that the arrangement with the village of North Red Deer for the use of the City nuisance ground be continued until Dec. 31st, 1914, for the sum of $100.00 payable half yearly in advance.

We submit the monthly reports of the Fire Chief, Chief of Police and Police Inspector for the month of March.

It is necessary for you to appoint an Acting Mayor for the ensuing three months.

The Fire Chief inspected the water system in the Alberta Ladies' College and reports that the automatic valve has not been installed as requested.

We propose to have work started as soon as possible at finishing the boulevard left over from last year's work, and to be completed and sealed this summer.

Some frame buildings have been built in Block 4, contrary to the building regulations. We would like the Council to inspect them and decide what action to take. One shed was ordered torn down.

We submit copy of engineer's report on sanitary engineering for 1913 to the Council.

We submit statement of receipts and disbursements for March.

We submit accounts for your authorization to pay.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

S. N. CARSCALEN,
A. T. STEPHENSON,
Commissioners.

COMMISSIONERS' REPORT ON SIDEWALKS.

The Commissioners brought in their special report on sidewalks: We beg to recommend that the following sidewalks be advertised as local improvements:

Cement walks, 5 feet wide, with curb, gutter and boulevard—On Poplar Street, both sides, from Douglas Street to Stewart Street.

Cement walks, 6 feet wide, with curb, gutter and boulevard—On Mann Street, south side, from Parkville Avenue to Centre Street; on Stewart Street, both sides, from Douglas Street to Waskasoo Avenue.

Plank Walks, four feet wide—On Manson Street, north side, from Gaetz Avenue to Nantaw Avenue; on Parkville Avenue, east side, from Ross Street to Mann Street; on Alexander Street, north side, from Parkville Avenue to Roland Avenue; on Victor Street, north side, from Parkville Avenue to Roland Avenue; on Mackenzie Avenue, east side, from Brooks Street to Manson Street; on Grandview Avenue, north side, from Manson Street to Second Street North; on First Street North, north side, from Grandview Avenue to Chester Avenue; on Second Street North, south side, from Grandview Avenue to Chester Avenue; on Parkville Avenue, east side, from Morrison Street to Stewart Street; on Stewart Street, north side, from Parkville Avenue to Poplar Street.

Most of the planks noted above were laid last year, but the only ones laid were the first two in the list.

The quantity of cement walk to be laid is so small that few contractors could tender for it. We recommend that any cement walks laid this summer be laid by day labor by the city. In this way we can ascertain the exact cost of laying cement walks in Red Deer, and possibly can save money in the future by doing the work ourselves. Not much equipment will be required.

S. N. CARSCALEN,
A. T. STEPHENSON,
Commissioners.

Moved by Alderman Carswell and Watson—that the Alberta Ladies' College be instructed to install an automatic valve in water service supplied within sixty days under penalty of having service discontinued.

LICENSE INSPECTOR.

The License Inspector's report for March was to the effect that he had collected a total of $663.50, and had duly inspected the places of business, and had been satisfied as to them being granted a license.

ACCOUNTS.

The following accounts were passed: Imperial Bank $72.65, wage sheet March, 117.10; Public School Board $87.22, Western General Electric $87.50, A. S. Carr 3.75, Day Hardware Co. 77, W. H. Hoskins Co. 8.04, T. A. Gaetz 75, Jos. Wallace J.P. 9.00, Latimer & Bottrell 112.35, News Publishing Co. 141.32, W. Springbett 3.75, Merchants Bank 72.65, Merchants Bank 1193.18, Western General Electric 118.48, Western General Electric 437.50, E. C. Neill 50, McLean Bros 80, Cushing Bros 30, Gaetz-Cornett Co. 8.70, Smith & Gaetz 17.25, Red Deer Advocate 393.84, Flewson & Son 23.74, Deputy Minister of Interior 432.80.

Moved by Alderman Smith and Lord—that the Commissioners' special report on sidewalks be received and adopted, and that a four-foot plank sidewalk on Parkville Ave., on east side, from Third St. North to Fifth St. North be advertised. Carried.

Alderman Bottrell was appointed Acting Mayor for the ensuing three months.

The following by-laws were given their 1st and second reading: No. 364, disposal of refuse; No. 365, early closing barber shops; No. 366, building by-laws.

Council adjourned at 11.30 p.m.

BRIDE OF A MONTH

Farmer's Son Goes to College and Weds City Girl Who Makes Good.

By AUGUSTUS GOODRICH-SHERWIN.

"She won't do, Silas," said Mrs. Green in a positive tone—"she won't do at all."

"I'm afraid not," answered her husband with a doleful shake of the head. "I reckon John has made a dreadful mistake. Not that the poor little thing has a lazy bone in her body. She's bright, chipper and accommodating, but it's all the wrong way."

"Yes, working embroidery and training roses don't count like milking and making butter," observed the practical housewife. "There's Ellen, now. She's worth her weight in gold at the churn."

"And Mary," added the old farmer. "Why, that girl just makes fun of pitching hay."

Ellen was the wife of James Green, and Mary had married his brother, Ethan. They were great strapping fellows, both of them, and their wives matched them. The old farmer had declared they had showed rare common sense in selecting helpmates who knew how to earn their living.

"It's all come of John going to college," mourned the old man. "He came back with his crazy scientific notions, and a little doll of a thing who never wet her fingers in the way of work."

The "little doll of a thing," Madge Green, the bride of a month, was at that very moment crying as if her heart would break, in a vine arched over the front porch.

Madge was in his arms sobbing out her pitiful story.

limped around and bore the main burden of meal setting. With hungry working appetites out of the way, however, she was surprised to find in how many useful ways Madge was fitting into the work. John helped Madge wash the dishes, and after a week or two of grumbling Mrs. Green confessed, one evening, that things were "real comfortable."

"Little girl," said John one day, when Madge proudly showed him the result of bread-baking, "this work is coming pretty heavy on you."

"Oh, John," declared Madge, "I love it!"

"I was thinking that perhaps you had better induce the old folks to settle in town and give up the farm—they can afford it."

"Oh, John! give up the dear old home? Don't think of it," pleaded Madge. "We are getting along splendidly. Why, I heard father say to mother yesterday that the little doll-cakes I made for him were making him well faster than the doctor's medicine. His mother said I was the best nurse in the world. Think of it—poor little me!"

"That evening, after Madge had given them some of the plans, John drew a paper from his pocket covered with figures."

"Father," he said, "there are the returns from the eighty-acre field. I find that my 'scientific nonsense' as you call it, has brought in more than all the rest of the farm put together, with half the usual help."

"John," exclaimed the old man, after staring stupidly at the paper, "it's like a dream!"

"Stubborn facts, father," declared John, cheerily. "Now I've got a proposition to make. You and mother have worked hard enough for one lifetime. Let me run the farm. Madge will get a strong hired girl to do the rough work."

"If my own little efforts only multi-broke in Madge wistfully."

"Sut!" cried the old man. "Why, yes, this broken bit of time has just been luxury with the fine feeding you've given me. And look at me! all perked up with the collar and necktie. Why, last night, I caught her humming over one of those old time tunes you play for us, just like she used to when she was a young 'un."

Mrs. Green reached over to Madge and pulled her towards her. He drew the fair face down to her own and kissed her softly, her eyes humid and grateful.

"Yes, Madge is a jewel," she said. "She is better than that!"

MASTER OF ART OF GRAFTING

Representative Burleson of Texas describes the Operations of the King of Them All.

"No, I won't give you a cent. You are a grifter, and a smooth one, but you get your money in other ways. Following this declaration just outside the national Democratic headquarters one man made for the elevator and the other entered the editorial offices of the national Democratic machine. The latter was Representative Albert Sidney Burleson of Austin. 'Ter' and his face was flushed with anger."

"There is the nerviest fellow you'll ever see in your life," said Mr. Burleson, by way of apology and explanation. "That fellow keeps a hot trail for men in politics and borrows right and left. I don't think he ever made an honest cent in his life."

"I first knew him in the Panhandle section of Texas. There, by sheer accident, he had made a life of it, and then borrowed money from a bank to stock and run the place. Here is a story that is typical of him: One day he was out on a horse, and he smelt to have it shod. He induced a neighbor named Peters to accompany him. After the negro had put two shoes on the horse he turned to Peters and said:

"That's the best work I ever saw a nigger do. By George, he deserves a reward. Give me a dollar for a few minutes, Peters, to give this nigger."

"Peters forked over the dollar and went away. When the negro blacksmith had finished putting the last two shoes on the horse, this fellow dropped back a few feet and stood looking on in admiration."

"That's the finest job I ever saw in my life," he said. "Any man, even if he is a nigger, that can shoe horses like that can drink with me. Come on, my man, and have a drink."

"And then he took the negro across the street to a saloon and borrowed the dollar from him on the way over. He is actually the best money getter I ever saw, and I honestly believe if he was stranded on the Sahara desert he would have a harem and car fare to San Francisco before two days. He is surely a wonder."—New York Herald.

NEW ENGLISH CHAMPION

Charlie Mitchell Says He Can be Found

Charlie Mitchell, the veteran English heavyweight who has not lost interest in the game, says:

"The man who says the fighting instinct is dead in Great Britain is a fool. I wish all the problems of life were as easy to explain. The British so-called champions have of late years been boosted into prominence, they have not fought their way to the front. As such as they do, one or two decent things in public they were halted as world whippers when, as a matter of fact, they were a little better than novices, and had no right in the limelight at all."

"As soon as they jumped into a man of any class they were dropped out and made us, as a nation, something of a laughing stock for the world."

"It needed only a French middle-weight to come over and knock out our best heavyweight to make us fully realize where we stood in the game of fighting. How would we feel if a German repeated the French boy's victory?"

CANADIAN NATIONAL THEATRE

English Actor Regards it as Imperial Need

In an address on "The Empire and Drama," which Mr. Martin Harvey delivered at the Empire Club, Toronto, the English actor spoke of the awakening of interest in dramatic art in Canada and the need of a National Theatre. The country had no call to worry about its material affairs, but there were other things that went to make up a nation besides material things, and art in all forms was a spiritualizing and humanizing power. The theatre was a force in forming the character of the nation, and therefore an effort should be made to have the theatre for imperial ideals.

The speaker went on to say, that Canada was beginning to feel its "life in every limb," and the time had come for the young country to express itself in art. Some forms of art were already alive, but as yet the voice of a national drama had not been heard. The Dominion, with its picturesque history and unusual racial characteristics, possessed inspiring themes for the Canadian playwright.

Thus the foundation of a chain of National Theatres would do more to tighten the bonds of Empire than all the utilitarian and political schemes put together. It meant a common meeting ground for the British people in an atmosphere of art and culture.

"And remember," said Mr. Harvey, "the great States of the world have covered themselves with more glory by their encouragement of the arts than by anything else."

A Record Walk

In 1851 an old Canadian sailor of eighty-four, named Mary Gellinck, walked from Pezance to London to see the great exhibition in Hyde Park. The distance is nearly 800 miles. The old woman created a sensation and was noticed by Queen Victoria. She had vowed to go to the land major before returning, and she carried out her intention, but, of course was not permitted to walk back home.

Signs of the Times

Soon it will be difficult to distinguish small boys from little girls in the streets, for the latter are adopting trouser-like suits.

Little girls can be seen wearing breeches, close knickerbockers, rooster coats and hats that make them look "just like brothers" in their dress.

Britain's Meat Export

Every year in Britain over 16,000,000 sheep and lambs are slaughtered for export and the total value of 100,000,000 pounds is sent out annually for overseas consumption.

GAME LAWS

Benjamin Lawton, Chief Game Guardian, advises us that all residents of the province residing to the south of the 56th parallel, who are not farmers residing on their farms, or members of such farmer's family residing with him on the farm, require a license before hunting or shooting any game bird. This includes all ducks and swans is now a little later in the year, being the 1st of September, where formerly it was the 23rd of August, from April 1st to November 1st in each year. During this time no person may hunt, trap, take, shoot at, wound or kill any fowl without first obtaining a special permit to do so. Section 27 of the Act gives particulars with respect to such permits. It is also illegal for any person to export beyond the boundaries of the province of Alberta any live fowl without first obtaining a permit, which in the case of animals reared on a farm will cost $15.00. In the case of animals not reared on a farm the fee is $100.00 for each and every black or silver fox to be exported, and $150.00 for each and every animal of any other species of the fox family. Copies of the regulations relating to fowl may be had on application. You will find also by referring to the provisions of section 7 A of the Act that any person trespassing on a fox farm, contrary to any warning notice, is liable to a penalty of not less than $50.00 and not more than $200.00, with costs in each case.

As a great many of the residents of the province are interesting themselves in fox farming, you may advise them that there is now a close season on foxes, extending from April 1st to November 1st in each year. During this time no person may hunt, trap, take, shoot at, wound or kill any fowl without first obtaining a special permit to do so. Section 27 of the Act gives particulars with respect to such permits. SPORT NOTES

Winnipeg, April 14th—The Manitoba Football Association decided, by a unanimous vote of delegates, to renew affiliation with the Dominion Football Association for the coming season, expressing confidence in the provincial body, at the same time commending the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada for its efforts to make an alliance with footballers, was also passed.

The annual meeting of the Red Deer Football League was a success from many points of view. H. G. Scott's motion placing all players under the control of the League Executive was a very necessary and proper one. While it was always understood that the League had control, the fact remained that there was nothing on the books to that effect. This meant that the players in the event of being called upon to play in a representative team for the city, could decline or accept as will make it a hard proposition for the selecting committee. The same thing would apply to players turning up late to play or refusing to abide by the League's ruling on any matter.

For the game to be carried on successfully there must be a ruling body, and that body must have all the power necessary to control the game for its good.

The Red Deer United has had considerable success in the Provincial League in the past, generally winning out in their district matches, and making a good showing in the finals in the Provincial League.

They have also given some excellent displays for the Citizens' Club, and the game they played for the Citizens' Club against the Calgary Calles, running them to a draw, what was perhaps the best exhibition of football ever seen in Red Deer will long live in the memory of those who had the pleasure of seeing it.

Last year the city was not represented by its best team, owing to the fact that two teams were entered, which was in our opinion a mistake. However, what will happen this year is the question.

A good representative class of men have been elected to the League Executive, but while in the past there has been little difficulty in getting four clubs to enter teams, this year the committee are faced with a very hard task to start with, inasmuch that there appears to be only two teams available, the Firemen and Calles. We understand the School are in favor of baseball and lacrosse for this year. While we have nothing to say against these games, in fact we favor them, at the same time it is a pity to allow football to drop, particularly among the juniors, for such good work has been done during the past two years and the game getting such a hold among them, that a solid foundation has been laid and must lead to good results if kept up.

The Town Club simply falls through for the want of some energetic workers. The Bankers are strong enough to form a good club, but the want of an organizer among them is felt. An institution of the standing should need no pushing in the interest of football. The Young Men's Club of St. Luke's should have a team by now. The only trouble seems to be that every player wants to belong to the best team, and that is not the spirit which will foster the game, and unless some of these people mentioned get busy, we fail to see how there can be any league at all, for a two-team league is a farce.

As an alternative, as we see it, is to invite outside teams to come in, but we would prefer to see the league formed of local clubs because of the expense, and we are satisfied there are at least enough players to form three good teams.

North Red Deer Council

The regular meeting of the Council of North Red Deer was held on Monday evening last week. All Councillors present and Reeve Kent in the chair. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and ordered signed.

Upon motion of Councillors Smith and Hearnery.

The following accounts were read and ordered paid: J. J. Beart, $0.45; Smith & Gaetz, $18.00; Greene & Payne, $10.00; Western Municipal News, $3.64; Latimer & Bottler, $10.50; The News, $12.00; J. Beart, $2.00; Gaetz-Cornett Co., $1.00; E. Laney, $2.00.

Correspondence was received and noted upon as follows:

Smith & Gaetz, acknowledging receipt of order for 25 additional sanitary pails. Filed.

Latimer & Bottler, re. insurance. Filed.

Department of the Interior, re. property for nuisance grounds. Filed. City of Red Deer, re. renewal of agreement for use of city's nuisance grounds. Moved by Councillors Hearnery and Smith, that the village renew the agreement with the city of Red Deer for another year upon the same terms as for the past year. Carried.

Deputy Minister of Railways and Telephones. Filed.

Rev. Father Lamort, re. diversion of Maple Ave. Laid on table and Secretary ordered to acknowledge and thank the Rev. Father for the resolution in price of the required road for the diversion.

The Secretary was instructed to write the Department to inquire if village would be in order to purchase the diversion cut of current revenue.

A letter was received from Cleve Combs, offering to do certain building of streets and lanes for a specified sum. This led to discussion resulting in a motion by Councillor Hearnery, seconded by Councillor Smith, that the levying of village be done by day labor and that only married residents of village be employed. Rate of wages to be 25 cents per hour. Carried.

Letters offering property for sale was received from the following ratepayers: Mrs. H. Reed, L. Brennan, Wm. H. Rich, J. H. Rich and E. Edgington. Messrs. Bawltine and Green also gave quotations for properties in the vicinity of the school. The ratepayers present were invited to express their opinions regarding a suitable property for municipal building and fire-hall site. W. H. Rich congratulated the Council on their apparent preference for land without any buildings, and pointed out that a former Council, composed of Messrs. Wm. Hearnery, L. Brennan and himself, had selected Block 8, diagonally across the corner from the school, as a site for the municipal office.

Being advised legally that the Council could not purchase property, this proposition had been abandoned and the present arrangement entered into with Mr. Brennan. He favored the purchase of Block 8.

Mr. Brennan stated that he thought the municipal building should be located as nearly as possible to the centre of the village, and if this was done it would bring it near Mr. Hollis' residence. Block 8 had been offered the village at ten per cent. reduction from 1913 assessment, and this was considered a very fair proposition. The matter was left over for further consideration and decision by the Council.

The Council instructed the Secretary to post up notices requiring residents of the village to get their premises cleaned up before May 1st, all tin cans, rubbish, etc. to be placed in a pile close to the lane and same will be removed by the village scavenger. The Health Inspector will then inspect all premises, and those not cleaned up to his satisfaction will be required to be cleaned, and owners pay the entire cost of the cleaning.

This regulation does not apply to manure. The removal of this must be done at the cost of the property owner.

Red Deer Gun Club Annual Meeting

The regular annual meeting of the Red Deer Gun Club was held in the office of the Board of Trade on the evening of the 6th inst.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Patron—Edward Michener, M.P.P. Honorary President—R. L. Gaetz. President—G. B. Parker. Vice-President—J. L. Lund. Secretary—W. H. Hyde. Treasurer—S. V. Day.

Executive—G. S. Ware, D. A. Smith, J. M. Campbell. Field Captain—W. H. Plaxton.

Among other business it was decided that the fee for the season of 1914 should remain as heretofore, $5.00, that the first regular shoot should be held on the evening of Monday, the 27th of April, and regularly thereafter on every Monday and Tuesday night. The following resolution was also adopted:

"That this Club desires to put on record its sense of deep loss at the removal by death of our esteemed member, Captain W. H. Cottingham. We desire in this manner to testify to his many good qualities of head and heart, and to further acknowledge the debt we owe to him in making the club the success it has been."

Too many of us OVERLOOK health happiness in this world.

We grow careless about the MINOR ills of life and rarely experience the JOY of living.

The average man or woman cannot conscientiously say that he or she feels FIT and WELL, even day in and day out. Modern methods of living are against good health—and render us peculiarly susceptible to Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and Biliaryness.

Our stomachs are always bothering us. We grow accustomed to feeling wretched—but not sufficiently wretched to bother the doctor.

But there IS a cure for this wretched feeling. Take 15 drops of Dr. Richter's Curative Syrup. This great English remedy brings QUICK relief to the disordered stomach.

It restores the digestive organs to normal action and keeps them in a healthy condition. It is almost purely herbal—Nature's own remedy for sick stomachs.

Get Dr. Richter's Curative Syrup. Take it regularly—then note the improvement in your health.

WALKS FROM CALIFORNIA TO EDMONTON FOR HEALTH.

H. W. Reaks passed through Red Deer early Tuesday morning walking to Edmonton. Mr. Reaks was suffering very much with consumption, and was told that a walking tour would give him better hopes for a cure. He started from San Diego, California, and has walked the entire distance so far to Red Deer. He has improved his health and put on weight since starting out and has walked thirty-five miles a day. He sells papers in the large towns and cities for a living as he goes along. He showed Chief Anderson letters, etc., from Mayors of cities to prove his bona fides. He intends finishing his walk at Edmonton.

MARRIED.

At the Manse, Red Deer, on Friday, February 3, 1914, by Rev. W. G. Brown, Miss Bertha Adie Robelax to Mr. Maurice Gustave Theveny, both of Sylvan Lake.

At the Manse, Red Deer, on April 1, 1914, by Rev. W. G. Brown, Miss Pauline Emma Schwarzhof, of Rocky Mountain House, to Mr. Carl August Schroeder, of the same place.

BIRTHS.

At West Park, Red Deer, Saturday, April 11th, to Mr. and Mrs. A. McPherson, a son.

At Innisfail, Tuesday, April 7th, to Mr. and Mrs. W. C. A. Watt, a daughter.

At Red Deer, Tuesday, April 14th, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bean, a son.

SEEDING COMMENCES.

The splendid weather during the past week has dried up the fields, and farmers are all busy on their land. The snow and rain of two weeks ago gave the soil just what was needed—a good soaking—and the present warm weather places the soil in ideal shape for seed. Every indication points to a bumper harvest for 1914 in the Red Deer district.

HOUSE TO RENT.

Six-roomed house to rent, with good stable, on four lots, on Third Street South. Apply E. R. Hill, April 15, 2w.

NICE GARDEN PLOT TO RENT.

To rent, a garden consisting of about an acre and a half of first class soil. Apply to News Office, Red Deer, April 14, 1914.

FURNITURE FOR SALE.

Dining room suite, mission style, practically new. Also other furniture. A bargain for cash. Apply News Office, April 15, 1w.

EGGS FOR HATCHING.

From purebred Light Brahmas, White Wyandotters and White Orpingtons.—H. P. ELLIS, Poplar St. April 15, 4w.

WANTED.

Price for the burning and stumping all that portion of the South-West Quarter of Section 16-32-27, W. 4th, containing 77 1/2 acres more or less. Fire guard will only be required for half mile on west side.

Price to be submitted by April 21st, and work to be completed not later than April 30th.

Tenders for plowing and disking same will be considered.

Property being only one mile from Red Deer, can be easily inspected. For full particulars apply to LATIMER & POTTERILL.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

It costs no more, and you will get what's right, at Fulton's.

Quite a number of citizens made a run out to Sylvan Lake this Easter.

Underwear, both cool and comfortable, $1.50 per suit, at Fulton's.

Mrs. J. A. Bannerman will not receive on Thursday, nor again this season.

Mr. and Mrs. McCowan, of Innisfail, were visiting Mrs. Geo. W. Lindsay on Thursday last.

Mrs. W. E. Lord will not receive Thursday of this week or again this season.

H. Greenham, of Rimby, Alta., is visiting his brother, C. Greenham, West Park.

Mrs. Kane, Fifth Street North, will not receive on Thursday of this week, or again this season.

Mrs. Laurie Smith, Parkvale, spent Easter visiting her parents in Olds.

Mr. Smith spent Good Friday there also.

A cockshut, of Calgary, was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Pidgeon on Easter Monday, and took in the dance at the Parish Hall.

P. Gordon, roadmaster, C.P.R., Red Deer, returned from a four month's trip to Sweden on April 4th, and resumed his duties again.

Jaeger's summer-weight, pure wool underwear, at $4.25 per suit, is the real thing for this climate. You can get it at Fulton's.

James Mann, Secretary of the Alberta Amateur Athletic Union, attended the annual meeting in Calgary on Easter Monday.

Geo. W. Greene, who underwent a serious operation last week at the Memorial Hospital, is progressing very favorably.

House furnishings: T. A. Gaetz expects his traveller in a day or two and would be pleased to have your special orders.

Your suit will be correct in style, and the workmanship and fit will be taken at Fulton's.

The high tea and dance in the Parish Hall on Easter Monday was a great success, both entertainers and entertained being satisfied with the result.

The advertisement in the Advocate announcing the public meeting to discuss provincial questions should have read Tuesday, April 14th, not 24th.

Irwin Lyness, freight clerk, at the C.P.R. depot, received news on Saturday last of the death of his mother, and left the same day for Gladstone, Man.

Webb's music store contains the best and largest stock of musical instruments in town. Repairs a specialty. Columbia talking machines and records always in stock.

The programme to be given by the Toronto Ladies' Quartette will be well worth $1.00, but the choir prefers an audience of 400 at 50 cents to 200 at $1.00. Help the choir.

Joe Rousseau and Oscar Wessell have opened up a store north of the post office at Sylvan Lake, and are handling John Deere implements, motors, and flour and feed.

Hprace Meers and H. J. Snell were in Calgary Easter Monday as representatives at the Amateur Athletic Union and Provincial Football Association.

Miss Florence Cottingham leaves today for an extended visit at the coast. She will meet Mrs. Cottingham at Calgary, and they will proceed at once to Vancouver, where they have relatives.

C. Hughes, of North Red Deer, thanks very much Messrs. Clark, McElwraith, V. Milfin, J. Cochet, Cheest and others who helped him to stop the fire in the neighborhood on Friday afternoon.

The following students of Alberta University, Edmonton, spent Easter with relatives in the city: Charlie Bremner, Robert Hewson, W. Syers, Philip Galbraith, and Arthur and Charlie Carwell.

Capt. W. M. Jones, the only survivor of the steamship Miron, wrecked off the south coast of England three weeks ago, is the youngest brother of J. W. Jones of Red Deer.

S.O.E. members are requested to turn out tonight in large numbers, it being the anniversary of the formation of Lodge Red Deer. There will be songs, music, cards and refreshments.

Some hard fire-fighting had to be done at the Halibuton farm on Sunday morning, when one of the hay stacks caught fire, evidently from a prairie fire which was racing near. The buildings and remainder of the stacks were saved.

While T. Cosgrove was exercising his horse on Monday night the animal became fractious and struck out with his fore feet, striking Mr. Cosgrove on the head, cutting it badly. The doctor found it necessary to put several stitches in the wound.

The following former residents of Red Deer were visitors in the city during the Easter holidays: Jerry Gornell, Delmore Leslie, Reilly, Edmonton; Ernest George, Edmonton; W. Hodges, Dayland; Mr. and Mrs. D. Turner, Innisfail; Fred Hooley and Sam Abely, Calgary.

The band will hold its first practice of the season in the Grand Hall, tonight. An invitation to attend is extended to all new hands—men who may be residing in the city. A bass drummer is needed.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wallace spent Easter at Castor.

J. C. Brazier reports a record sale of crockery this Easter.

C. A. Julian-Sharman and family returned from California Wednesday last.

Percy, son of B. J. Wade, is recovering from an operation for appendicitis.

Messrs. Luckhardt and Gill, of Delburne, were in the city yesterday on business.

Fishing rods, lines, minnows, reels, trouble hooks, sinkers, floaters, hook on gut, fly hooks, gut leader, spoons and swivels at John McVicar's book-store.

Elsewhere in this paper you will find the programme to be given by the Toronto Ladies' Quartette in the Methodist Church next Monday evening. Admission 50 cents.

The first of the Master Photo pictures, entitled "The Third Degree," will be shown at the Lyric Theatre, Thursday, the 16th. This is a five reel Lubin feature film.

Don't miss seeing the "Arabian Nights," at the Parish Hall, tomorrow, Thursday, April 16th. Seats may be reserved. Prices 75c and 50c. Unreserved 25c. Plan at Gaetz-Cornett's.

The Toronto Ladies' Quartette has not been engaged on a percentage basis, but will be paid a stated sum. Therefore, the larger the attendance, the better for the choir.

It is earnestly hoped that every seat in the auditorium will be occupied.

After the 20th of this month all dogs found running at large without a tag will be impounded. The Inspector wishes it known that this order will be carried out, and no extension of time given. Dogs impounded and not claimed in three days will be destroyed.

The employees of the W. E. Lord Co., Ltd., met together on Saturday night last, after closing, on the second floor of the store, and presented Mr. Aubrey Wood, head of the grocery department, with a handsome drawing-room clock, suitably inscribed, the occasion of his approaching marriage. Mr. J. E. Holloway presented the gift, and Mr. Wood in a few words thanked the staff for their kindness.

J. G. Gillespie, manager of the Kamloops branch of the Imperial Bank, spent Easter holidays with his old friends in Red Deer. He has many friends among the fair sex who were at the depot Tuesday to see him off. He was mistaken for the leading man in a wedding party and nearly smothered with rice, etc., before the mistake was discovered, which is an omen that his turn comes next.

"The Mountaineer" is the name of a new paper published at Rocky Mountain House, and it has a name suggested enough for even the town of its birth. The editor is our genial friend, Geo. F. Thompson, and he made a name for himself by starting a paper in his home town when it was hardly visible to the naked eye, and was only a few years of age.

His paper, has George's prophetic vision, and it is fast approaching full west, and there are now two papers published at Rocky Mountain House, and it will not be long before that young and vigorous town will be well known throughout the province. We wish our cotem all success in his venture.

Footballers Wanted

The Executive of the City Football League held their first meeting on Friday night. The main question under discussion was the distribution of players among the several clubs. It is well known that there are easily enough football players in the city to form four good clubs, but that there is a lack of organizers to do the initial work. To get over this difficulty the executive have formed themselves into a committee of the whole to assist any person desiring to form a club, or any club already formed, in their organization work. This should interest every man in the city who is interested in football, and the committee, consisting of Messrs. Hadley, Snell, Griffin, J. Baird, Gibson, Moores, and May, will be glad to receive the name of every individual who plays the game and is not at present connected with any club.

The committee have the welfare of the game at heart, and are doing their part to foster it along the proper lines. It is now up to the players themselves as to whether the game is to progress or not. A resolution was passed which enables a team turning out to play short handed to make up its number from players or any other team who may be around. This shows the right spirit and should help considerably.

GUIN CLUB SHOOT.

A most enthusiastic shoot was held by the Red Deer Gun Club on the morning of Good Friday. The weather being almost perfect for trap shooting, some good scores resulted.

The following former residents of Red Deer were visitors in the city during the Easter holidays: Jerry Gornell, Delmore Leslie, Reilly, Edmonton; Ernest George, Edmonton; W. Hodges, Dayland; Mr. and Mrs. D. Turner, Innisfail; Fred Hooley and Sam Abely, Calgary.

Mr. Gheer, consulting engineer, accompanied by Stuart Kidd, paid a visit to the mines this week.

Jack Macbeth, who has been working here during the past four months, left on Saturday to take up residence on his homestead west of Pitou.

S. R. Woodley, paymaster, came in on Friday's train from Red Deer.

Mr. Gall, the townsite engineer, at the mines, is on a business trip to Red Deer this week.

Ed. Carman, "D" stable boss, made a business trip to Leslieville this week in connection with material required for concrete construction here.

According to a report in circulation here this week, the general store to be opened at Nordegg in the near future will be by Mr. Stuart Kidd. Mr. Kidd will also hold the position of postmaster here. If gossip proves true, the appointment is a very popular one, and much satisfaction is being expressed with the selection.

Dr. Gray returned from Red Deer Tuesday, Dr. McNair was practicing here in the absence of Dr. Gray.

Ross Randolph left for Red Deer on Tuesday last. Ross intends bringing his wife and family to Nordegg this week.

Several cottages are now ready for occupation, and employees intend moving their families in at an early date.

Donald Cameron, fire boss, is on a trip to Red Deer and points on the C.P.R. line this week.

Inspector McDonald, of the R.N.W.M.P., visited Nordegg this week.

Work on concrete construction here has been delayed during the past week owing to the shortage of material. Several cars of gravel arrived Sunday and work on concrete requirements will commence immediately. Messrs. Roberts and Scholast are having the reinforcements built and earnings ready for the concrete foundations for the new tipple, scales, wash-rails, etc. Several carloads of gravel were unloaded this week.

Operations on the townsite are progressing rapidly, and the next few weeks will see the arrival of several families in Alberta's newest town, Nordegg.

Two organizers of the United Mineworkers of America arrived in Nordegg on Saturday. A meeting for the purpose of deciding the question of organizing a local was held on Sunday.

Ed. Carman returned Wednesday from a visit to Red Deer. Ed. reports business quiet in the baby city, but says a calm confidence in Red Deer's future is a most notable feature of the average citizen's conversation.

Charles George, son of Dr. George, of Red Deer, is getting sub-postmaster at Nordegg.

POPLAR RIDGE.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Neilson and two children spent Easter visiting Mrs. Neilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Rogers, of Wittenberg.

Miss Margaret L. Rogers returned home to Wittenberg last Saturday after spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. Neilson, while attending school here.

The concert held in the school house last Thursday was a great success. The children all did well, and Mrs. Austin deserves credit for her training. Mrs. Selberman presided at the organ. Drills, dialogues, readings and vocal and instrumental music were greatly enjoyed by all.

Rev. Bennett took charge of services Sunday afternoon. The Lord's Supper was observed at the close of the preaching service.
